Many people are misinformed and don't know what the facts show

This person thinks that I'm stupid.
I understand what he's saying – I just don't agree with it

Unfortunately
there's a lot of prejudice underpinning
this debate

He thinks I'm racist. Or being duped by someone who's racist

doing the same thing over different results.’

‘Martin Luther King Jr

He said ‘I have a dream.’”

You can't audience

Know (and love) your audience

- Who is your audience?

- What do you want them to do?
- What channel will reach them best?

Reframe your message to reach your audience:

- listen to understand
- find common values
- describe a positive alternative
- give them an open door

'Movable middle'

Majority of Canadians don't hold strong views on immigration

- Empower your base
- Engage the middle
- Define and marginalize the strong opponents

- Are you talking about what you are FOR, or what are you are AGAINST?
- Are you campaigning for a SOLUTION, or against a PROBLEM?
- Are you warning about THREATS, or highlighting an OPPORTUNITY?
- Are you telling people they need to be angry and afraid, or that there is a reason for hope and determination?
- Are you telling people what to think, or telling them how you came to your conclusion so that they can make the same journey?
- Are you talking about victims, or everyday heroes?
