

Toronto For All

Toronto For All

Toronto: “Diversity Our Strength”

Toronto’s population:

- 51.2% foreign-born
- 200+ different ethnic origins, over 140 languages
- 51.5% visible minority
- Largest Indigenous population in Ontario
- Largest Black population in Canada
- Largest newcomer population in Canada

Source: Statistics Canada, 2016 Census

City of Toronto Newcomer Office (TNO)

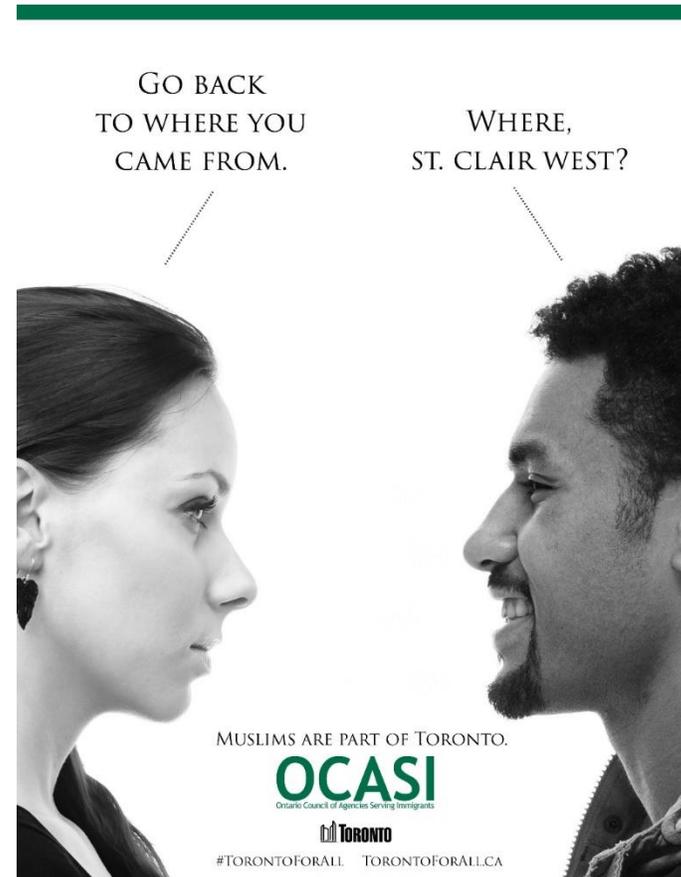

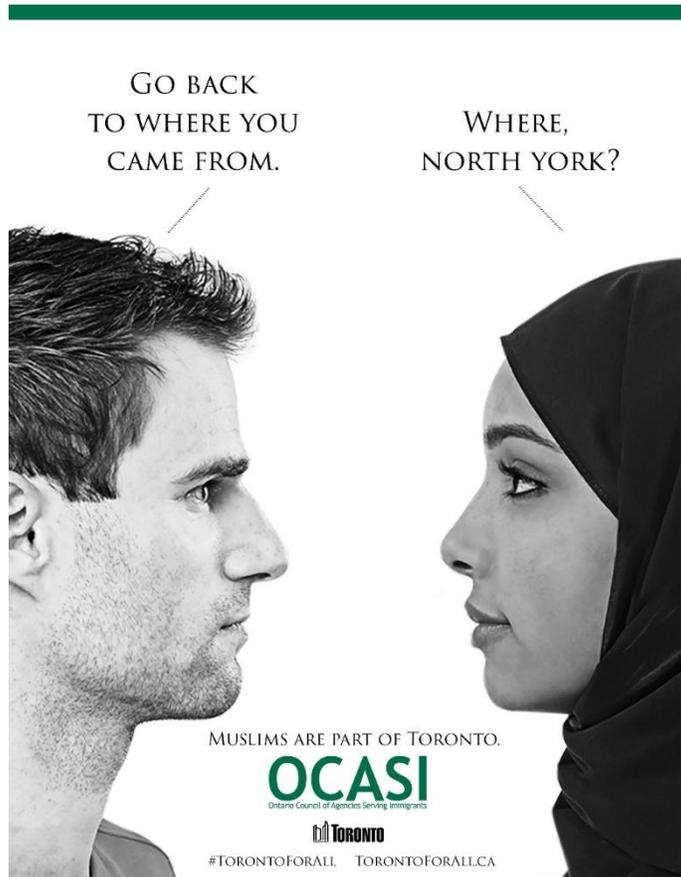

- Established in 2013 as city-wide LIP
- Embedded within the municipality
- Works closely with Toronto Quadrant LIPs, community based
- Responsible for implementation and policy stewardship of five Council approved immigration-related strategies

Opportunities

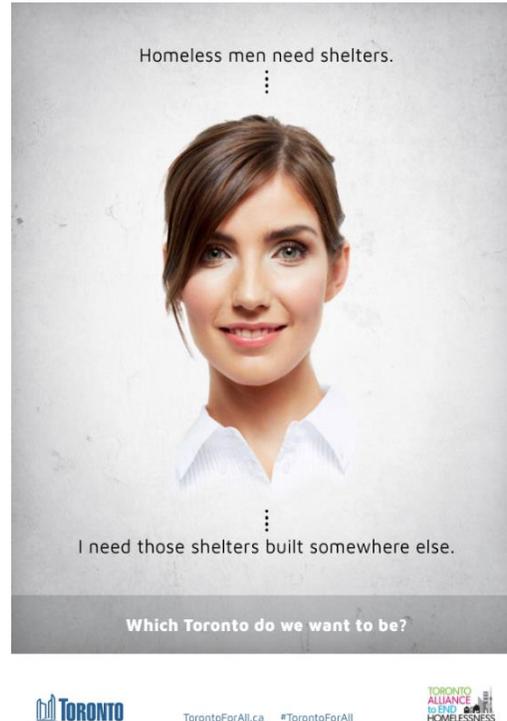

- Integration of newcomer lens into City's strategies and policies, service delivery
- Ability to leverage political support, City resources
- High level of trust between community organizations and City (true partnership)
- Significant public interest, media coverage

#Toronto For All

6

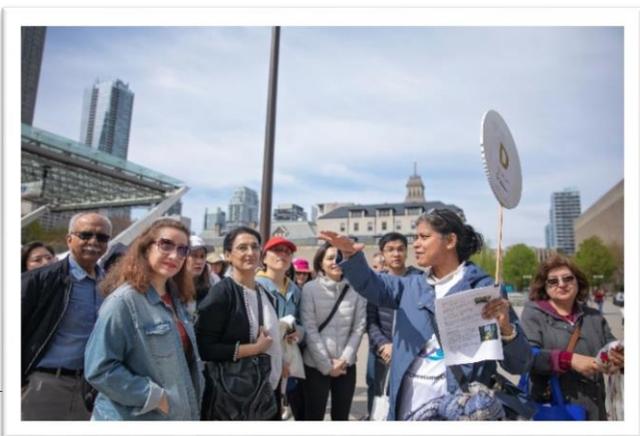

#Toronto For All

Toronto Newcomer Day

Vera Dodic

Manager, Toronto Newcomer Office

City of Toronto

Email: vera.dodic@toronto.ca

Tel: 416-392-5679

toronto.ca/newcomer | toronto.ca/refugees

@TONewcomer