

ProLiteracy Mobile Learning Fund

A Grant for Language Upskilling: A Free Opportunity for English, Equity, and Economic Mobility

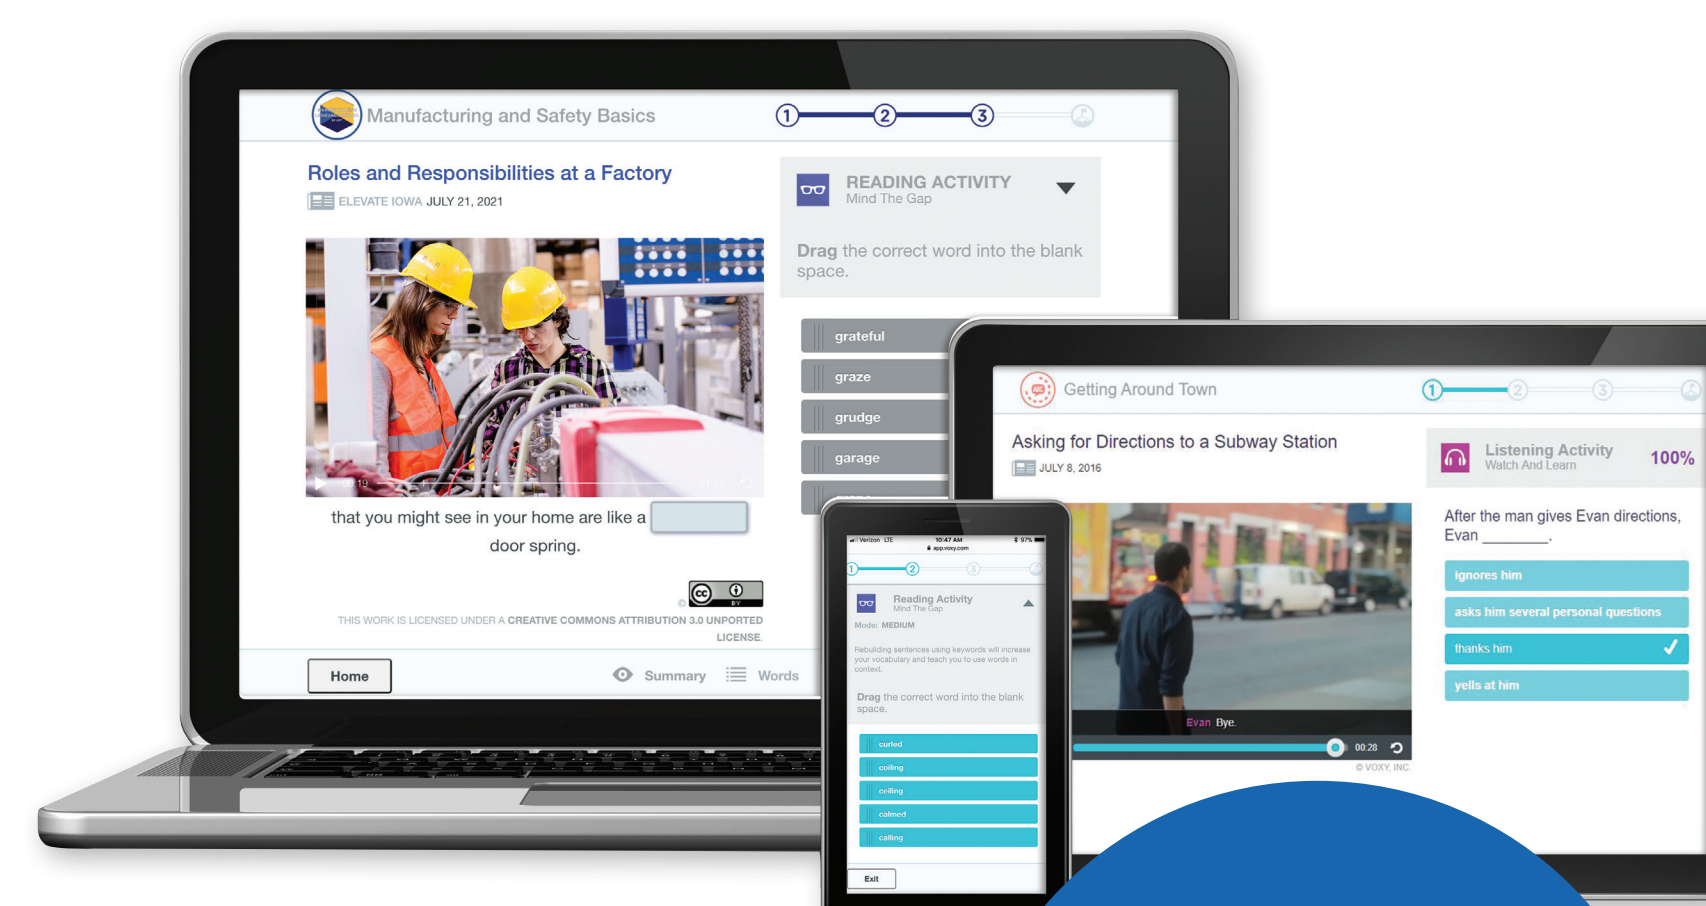

Roberta Power, Educational Consultant for Canada, ProLiteracy New Readers Press | Rpower@proliteracy.org
Sare Sulaiman, Policy Analyst, Uyghur Rights Advocacy Project (URAP) | Sare.S@urap.ca

Grants provided through ProLiteracy Mobile Learning Fund give adult learning programs free access to easy-to-use solutions for online learning.

Mobile Learning Fund grants give you access for these digital learning tools through ProLiteracy New Readers Press:

ENGEN

A results-driven English learning platform used to upskill English language learners to prepare them for real-world tasks, increase civic engagement, fill in-demand jobs, and advance in the workforce.

Aligned to Canadian Language Benchmarks

ProLiteracy New Readers Press® Online Learning

Online courses ranging from basic skills to high school equivalency test prep that deliver a personalized learning experience in one comprehensive solution.

LEARNING UPGRADE®

A fun and engaging app to help adult learners make gains in reading, English, math, work, life, health, digital and financial literacy.

News FOR YOU

An online news source with easy-to-read global current events stories that builds learners' reading, language, and media literacy skills.

